About Jenn August

America's Business Hypnotherapist Jenn August is a certified success coach and international speaker. Her proprietary hypnotherapy system has gained her recognition as one of the world's leading experts in removing subconscious blocks to business success. Jenn's process has helped her clients, double, triple and quadruple their income and relieve fear, doubt and feelings of unworthiness. Through her work, she helps her clients see their true selves, their true gifts and their true mission so they can begin to live a life of clear purpose and abundance. She believes that people were born to succeed and programmed to fail and that they can change their programming to create a wonderful life for themselves and their families. The expert works with multi-million dollar businesses to training companies to help their clients get the best results with their training systems. Spiritual Entrepreneur John Assaraf of "The Secret" endorses Jenn's work and says, "Hypnotism is where it's at and Jenn August knows how to do it and help you!"

The inspiration for Jenn's work stems from her childhood. She grew up in a household where her parents fought frequently and the energy was very stressful. She coped by becoming the family clown so that she could help shift the energy from stressful to fun and joyful. Her father, a medical doctor, was easily enraged, so she learned how to "be invisible" in order to protect herself. Her mother, a therapist, invited her to express and examine her feelings as a child. Jenn grew up with the stigma and self-image of not being intelligent because she had trouble focusing: she was later diagnosed with ADD and dyslexia at the age of 30. She used humor to win friends and feel valuable. Her parents encouraged her talents in music, art, theater and soccer, so she felt like she had to perform to get love and acceptance.

Jenn went on to study graphic design at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. During the summers, she performed at comedy clubs and with comedy troupes in her home town of Los Angeles. She started writing comedic songs and then began writing more emotional songs, reflective of her spirit. Her focus quickly turned from comedy to songwriting. She earned money by playing music in her college town and eventually recorded her first album called "Change the World".

After earning her bachelor's in graphic design, Jenn held positions as an office manager at a law office, a line producer for feature cartoons, taught guitar and songwriting and had graphic design and illustration business. All of her professional experience helped her sharpen her communication skills and get clear that she wanted to be her own boss. From her experience, she also determined that she wanted to help people unfold their gifts, create a wonderful life for themselves and help them contribute to the world in the way they yearned to do so.

In the process of launching and growing her own business, Jenn discovered some blockages to success and attracting money that she had to learn to overcome. Her issues surrounding money and feeling worthy of support stemmed from her father's complaints about the amount of alimony and child support that he had to pay: he even poured an envelope full of money into her lap and said, “This is how much you cost a month.” That created an imprint in Jenn that she was too expensive, even for her father, which she believes made it difficult for her to earn much money for a period of several years. A vivid memory of a picture of a man eating out of a garbage can, which her mother took for a photography class, created a question that she has carried with her since childhood: why do some people struggle while others thrive?

Her memories and subconscious thoughts lead Jenn to find a hypnotherapist who helped her overcome these blocks and live the life she desired. It became clear to Jenn that her pattern of hiding and not allowing herself to be too visible in order to stay safe was no longer necessary and was blocking her financial success. Thrilled with the drastic and positive changes she was able to make in her own life, Jenn decided to study hypnotherapy so she could learn to help business owner’s move from struggle to success using hypnotherapy, as she did. Today, the experienced hypnotherapist helps people clear “the stoppable self” and the old protective devices so they can feel who they really are and share that with themselves and the world, which makes them magnetic to their ideal clients, to opportunities and to love.

Jenn is the founder of TheSoundofGiving.org, where she uses her third album of original music “Dreams Alive”, to raise funds for humanitarian causes. Currently, she is focusing her fundraising efforts on Children’s Success Programs & Humanity Unites Brilliance, an organization that funds impact projects all over the world that are solving the world’s biggest challenges. The organization also gives social entrepreneurs the training, skills, community and the tools to make a huge difference in the world. Jenn is collaborating with Humanity Unites Brilliance on a social entrepreneur curriculum with visionary social entrepreneurial leaders: Spryte Loriano, Robert Evens, Jack Canfield, Cynthia Kersey, Marcia Weider, Janet Attwood, Chris Attwood and Julia Butterfly Hill, to name just a few.

Jenn resides in the San Francisco Bay area. When she isn’t coaching clients to success or speaking internationally, she enjoys hiking, swimming, traveling, drawing and sculpting, writing music and watching movies.

America’s Business Hypnotherapist and Success Coach Jenn August Holds Workshops to Help Remove Blocks to Success

Los Angeles, CA, DATE- Many entrepreneurs and business people may assume that obstacles to success are the economy or other external factors when the true obstacles are generally our own thoughts and ideas that have developed over years, according to America’s Business Hypnotherapist and Success Coach Jenn August.

August will hold one-of-a kind “Unlock Your Success Code” workshops to help people identify and overcome their individual obstacles to success. They will take place from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on December 2 in San Francisco, Calif. at the Westin San Francisco Airport and December 17, at the Los Angeles Airport Marriot in Los Angeles, Calif.

August lived much of her young life feeling defeated and unworthy of success. She knew she had to search for the root of the problem and start making life changes to turn things around. Through hypnotism, she unblocked her fears and discovered her true talents; as a result, building a successful six-figure business. Often called the mother of business hypnotherapy, August uses her patented C3 program and CD set/workbook, “Remove Your Blocks So Your Business Rocks”™, to help business owners unblock their subconscious mind and start building profitable businesses. She has helped clients double and triple their income using this process and has been called upon by multi-million dollar business training companies to help their clients achieve greater success.

August offers these success tips:

- “1. Compassion: Realize that 80% of what you think, feel and do is controlled by your subconscious mind. Know that it just needs to be re-set to serve you. Start with compassion and then take action to re-program your subconscious mind for success.
2. Awareness –Two Drivers and One Wheel: The conscious mind is about will power and controls 20% of what you think, feel and do. Start becoming aware of when you feel your “Stoppable Self” the part that wants to keep you safe small and protected and your “Unstoppable Self” the true you that wants to move forward in your life, in your business, and expand to serve more people.

3. You Can Turn Blocks Into Gold: Every single subconscious block has gold in it. You can learn from every challenge and use it to attract, empower and serve your clients to the fullest. Start writing down your challenges and what you learned from them and how you can help others with this knowledge.”

August’s “Unlock Your Success Code” workshops are interactive, which helps attendees put the information to use immediately. Tickets are $495 for the full-day workshop and lunch; however you can attend for $1 if you apply for a scholarship. Discounted parking rates will be available.
